NHTSA Recall 11V-395

IMPORTANT SAFETY RECALL NOTICE

Dear CR-V Owner:

This notice is sent to you in accordance with the requirements of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

What is the reason for this notice?

Honda has decided that a defect which relates to motor vehicle safety exists in the automatic transmission control module software of certain 2007-2010 model year CR-V vehicles; this defect may affect the secondary shaft bearing in a vehicle's transmission. There is a possibility that the secondary shaft bearing may be damaged when a driver rapidly shifts between different gears at high engine RPM. A damaged bearing may cause the engine to stall or the vehicle to roll after the gear selector has been placed in the park position. An engine stall or unexpected vehicle movement increases the risk of a crash or personal injury to persons within the path of a rolling vehicle.

What should you do?

Call any authorized Honda dealer and make an appointment to have your vehicle repaired. The dealer will repair your vehicle by updating the automatic transmission control module software. This work will be done free of charge. Please plan to leave your vehicle for half a day to allow the dealer flexibility in scheduling.

Who to contact if you experience problems?
