

HDMI Video

Play video from a compatible device through your vehicle.

Models with touchscreen

Connect your device to the HDMI port. From the connected device, launch the video you want to display on the touchscreen. This feature is limited while the vehicle is moving.

The device or video resolution must be 720p or lower to view in the touchscreen.

Additional cables and accessories sold separately.