

One-Touch Turn Signal

Use this quick and convenient method to signal a lane change.

Lightly push and release the turn signal lever up or down for a three-blink sequence.

For a continuous signal, push the lever up or down until it locks into place.

